The NewsChannel 5 Network (CBS affiliate WTVF) is looking for a top-notch associate producer/assignment editor to work in one of the country's best news organizations. We're looking for someone with strong news judgment, a willingness to learn, and the ability to work in a high-pressure, team-based environment. Ideal candidate has strong writing skills, working knowledge of computers and the internet, and the ability to interact well with co-workers and viewers.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- Write scripts for broadcast on the air and online
- Distribute scripts and operate teleprompter
- Maintain daily operation of the assignment desk.
- Handle incoming phone calls from viewers.
- Research, develop, and set up stories.
- Coordinate news crews to ensure timely and efficient coverage of breaking news stories as well as satellite feeds going in and out of the station.
- Monitor police, fire, and other emergency radio transmissions for story leads.
- Make "beat" calls to local public safety agencies.
- Act as liaison between station and other CBS affiliates and CNN news service.
- Other duties as assigned

KNOWLEDGE SKILLS AND ABILITIES REQUIRED

- Strong news judgment
- Ethical decision-making
- Ability to work well with others in a team-based environment
- Capability to perform well in high-pressure situations
- Flexibility to work as needed within station hours of operation, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including holidays
- Professional appearance and behavior
- Bachelor's Degree or comparable experience
- Must be able to lift 30 pound
- Ability to gather information and communicate well by telephone

KNOWLEDGE SKILLS AND ABILITIES PREFERRED

- Knowledge of computers and software
- Knowledge of television production techniques
- Experience in a newsroom environment, or educational training in journalism

Note: This job analysis describes the nature of this position, but is not an exhaustive list of duties. Additional duties may be assigned as needed.

Please send a resume and a non-returnable tape to Michelle Bonnett, Assistant News Director, NewsChannel 5 Network, 474 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville, TN 37219. No emails or phone calls please.

JOB POSTING

NEWS PHOTOGRAPHER 020311B

This is to advise you that NewsChannel 5 Network is looking for a NEWS PHOTOGRAPHER. Winner of the Emmy for News Excellence 6 out of the past 7 years and multiple NPPA awards, WTVF values journalistic integrity and visual storytelling. Our remodeled newsroom leverages the latest in file based workflows, including new Sony PMW-350s and a new end-to-end Avid Newscutter NLE system. The ideal candidate is competitive, deadline driven, organized, and considered among the best at visual storytelling.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Gather images and facts to create news stories, using sound journalistic judgment.
- Create news stories with creative framing, editing, use of sound, and other techniques that make television stories effective.
- Effectively tell a wide variety of stories with pictures, be it a daily news story, a series, or a documentary.
- Produce a quality news product under tight deadlines.
- Manage time wisely.
- Assist news management team with planning and placement of crews and resources.
- Shoot active live shots.
- Train for multi-tasking functions, including but not limited to live truck operation and helicopter photography.
- Thrive in a team-based environment.
- Requires flexibility to work as needed within station hours of operations, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including holidays.
- Must maintain professional appearance and behavior.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Required:

- College Degree or a minimum 3 years experience as a television news photographer.
- Experienced in non-linear editing.
- Carry as much as 50 pounds including news camera, camera support equipment, and camera tripod (sometimes for extended distances and periods of time).
- Be able to stand for long periods of time, often with the news camera on the shoulder.
- Be able to walk and run over all types of terrain while carrying the camera on the shoulder.
- Drive news car with passenger (short and long distances).
- Drive and operate live trucks and work in close proximity to microwave transmitters.
- Communicate over two-way radio and/or cellular telephone.
- Potentially go for extended periods of time with little or no rest.
- Be able to cover news stories (local or out of town) with little or no advance notice at any time of the day or night.
- Withstand extreme weather elements (hot & cold temperatures; rain, snow, etc.)
- Possess a valid driver's license and a good driving record.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Preferred:

- Understand and practice NPPA philosophies.

Deadline for applications is February 18, 2011
WTVF is an Equal Opportunity Employer

Please send a resume and a non-returnable tape to Mike Rose, Chief Photographer, NewsChannel 5 Network, 474 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville, TN 37219. No phone calls or emails please.

- Produce a quality news product under tight deadlines.
- Manage time wisely.
- Assist news management team with planning and placement of crews and resources.
- Shoot active live shots.
- Train for multi-tasking functions, including but not limited to live truck operation and helicopter photography.
- Thrive in a team-based environment.
- Requires flexibility to work as needed within station hours of operations, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including holidays.
- Must maintain professional appearance and behavior.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Required:

- College Degree or a minimum 3 years experience as a television news photographer.
- Experienced in non-linear editing.
- Carry as much as 50 pounds including news camera, camera support equipment, and camera tripod (sometimes for extended distances and periods of time).
- Be able to stand for long periods of time, often with the news camera on the shoulder.
- Be able to walk and run over all types of terrain while carrying the camera on the shoulder.
- Drive news car with passenger (short and long distances).
